

Grade K-5 – Sky Stories

Sky Stories reaffirms the wonder that people have always felt for the sky and natural world through storytelling. This show focuses on First Peoples' stories of the sky where we hear an origin story, how the sun came to be and some stories of the constellations. We also explore our local night sky and begin to find our way through the constellations.

	Grade 5 Social Studies Curriculum
5.1.1 KL-004	Describe First Peoples' stories of their origins.
5.1.1 VH-008	Value oral tradition as an important source of knowledge about First Peoples <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Experience legends as they were meant to be – as live storytelling events
5.1.2 KL-017	Describe practices and beliefs that reflected First Peoples' connections with the land and the natural environment. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• In the planetarium explore the idea of using sky as a compass to find your way across the world• Explore the idea of using the sky as a calendar